

Skagit Transit

Service Changes

To Be Implemented September 14, 2015

Summary

Starting Monday, September 14, 2015, the following service changes will go into effect:

1. Minor schedule changes for Routes 206, 305, and 300.
2. Route 207 will no longer service the Skagit County Jail stop on 3rd Street in Mount Vernon. Passengers are encouraged to use Skagit Station as an alternative.
3. Route 207 will operate less frequently with buses departing Skagit Station every 45 minutes rather than every 30 minutes.

A revised Rider Guide will go into circulation the week of August 31st publicizing these changes.

Route 206 – Minor Schedule Changes

Starting September 14th, Route 206 buses will depart Skagit Station at 5 and 35 minutes after the hour between 6:35am and 7:35pm Monday through Friday and between 8:05 and 5:35 on Saturday and Sunday. This change is being made to improve system wide on-time performance. The new schedule is shown below.

Route 207 Changes

Beginning September 14th, Route 207 will no longer service the bus stop at the County Jail on 3rd Street in downtown Mount Vernon. Passengers are encouraged to use Skagit Station as an alternative to the Jail stop. The walking distance between the two stops is 0.16 of a mile. Additionally, Route 207 will begin operating less frequently with buses leaving Skagit Station every 45 minutes rather than every 30 minutes. This decision is being made to improve system-wide on-time performance. Effective September 14, 2015, the following schedule will go into effect.
